CEMA Emergency Operation Center to Demobilize Today

SAVANNAH, GA (January 5, 2018) –Chatham Emergency Management Agency (CEMA) will demobilize the Emergency Operation Center (EOC) at 5 PM today, January 5th. A duty officer will still be available for any needs or questions citizens may have.

According to the National Weather Service, temperatures will drop to around 23 °F this evening. Many roads have icy patches, and ice that has melted during the day will refreeze with a potential for black ice development, which is not highly visible at night. If driving, citizens should be cautious and use slower speeds.
