Possible Kidnapping on West Tahoe Road

Chatham County, GA (February 26, 2018) – Chatham County Police Department was notified of a possible kidnapping at 8:00 PM. Victim is described as a black male, with a medium complexion, short hair, approximately 16 years old, estimated to be 5'0" – 5'7" tall, and weighs approximately 140 pounds. The victim was wearing a gray hoodie, light brown pants, and sandals. Two suspects were involved and have been described as driving a black, late 90s model, Silverado Chevy with a king cab, unknown Georgia tag, and a black cover over the bed of the truck. The driver of the Chevy truck is described as a black male with a medium complexion, heavy set, 6'0" tall, 240 pounds, possibly in his 30s, and wearing a white shirt with black shorts. The passenger of the Chevy truck was a male, possibly black, with light-medium complexion, mid 20s, 5'6", 130 pounds, and wearing a black shirt and brown pants.

The victim was seen walking along the 100 block of West Tahoe road, when suspects in the Chevy truck pulled up. One of the suspects jumped out of the truck, and forced the victim into the bed of the truck, pulling the cover over the bed with the victim underneath. The suspect then jumped back into the truck, and the truck continued to go south on West Tahoe, turning towards Cottenvale Road.

Anyone with information on this matter is asked to call 911.
