Chatham County Police Department Seeks to Identify Persons of Interest in Robberies by Sudden Snatching

Chatham County, GA (March 4, 2018) – Two Robbery by Sudden Snatching incidents have occurred this evening of Sunday, March 4, 2018. Both incidents involved the victims arranging to sell their cellular phones via the "Let Go" app. The first incident occurred at approximately 5:00 p.m. at the McDonald's located at 1A Gateway Boulevard East in Savannah. The second incident occurred at approximately 7:00 p.m. at the Kroger plaza located at 5720 Ogeechee Road in Savannah.

The suspect's vehicle is an older model (late 90's or early 00) Ford Explorer, maroon in color with a possibly tan bottom. The vehicle has a possible tag of BKR888. The vehicle was occupied by a white or Hispanic male driver, black male front passenger, and one or two white or Hispanic females in the back seat. In each incident, the suspect's vehicle pulled up to the victim and upon the victim handing the phone to one of the females inside the vehicle, the vehicle quickly drove off. No weapons were reported in either incident.
