Chatham County Police Respond to Domestic Violence Call

Chatham County, GA (April 4, 2018) – On April 4, 2018, Chatham County Police Department (CCPD) received a call for service in reference to a domestic violence situation. When police arrived on the scene, they were informed that a 36 year old male had fought with his father at their home on Dutch Island. The man's parents managed to leave the house with only minor injuries.

CCPD officers on scene were informed the suspect had weapons inside the house and refused to come out of the residence. CCPD then called Savannah Police Department (SPD) for mutual aid from their SWAT team. SWAT supervisors arrived on scene to assess the situation about the same time CCPD officers were able to make contact with the suspect. The suspect willingly stepped out of the residence where he was placed in custody by CCPD officers.
