CCPD Call for Service Leads to Discovery of Explosive Materials

Chatham County, GA (April 12, 2018) – Around 10pm on April 11, 2018, Chatham County Police Department (CCPD) received a call for service in Georgetown at the Trellis Apartment Complex on Brasseler Blvd. Police arrested one individual, who is active military member, for aggravated assault (the individual's identity is being withheld at this time).

When police officers secured the residence, they found items which led them to call in the U. S. Army's Explosive Ordinance Disposal (EOD) team for support. CCPD has turned over the subsequent investigation of those explosive materials to the U.S. Army's Criminal Investigation Division (CID).
