Entering Auto Suspect Taken Into Custody

Chatham County, GA (May 16, 2018) – The Chatham County Police Department responded to a call in the area of River Bluff Drive for a suspect entering into vehicles. The suspect fled on foot before police arrived on scene. After receiving a clear description of the suspect, Chatham County Police were able to quickly locate and detain Lloyd Lynch. Lynch was found lying in the back of a truck that he had been captured on camera entering. Lynch's Chevy truck was towed and processed, and numerous items matching descriptions from other cases were also found. Lloyd Lynch has been charged with three counts of Entering Auto and one count of Burglary in the 2nd degree.
