Chatham County Police Need the Public's Help to Locate Suspect in Armed Robbery of CVS

Chatham County, GA (May 22, 2018)- The Chatham County Police Department is seeking information on the whereabouts of suspect in armed robbery at the CVS on Ogeechee Rd at Cottonvale Rd. At 8:05 this morning, officers responded to an initial call of theft by taking. Upon arrival, officers learned the suspect showed a note to the store clerk, demanding money. The suspect also threatened the manager, stating he had a pipe bomb. He escaped with $187.00 in cash from the register.

The suspect is a black male and approximately six feet tall. He was wearing black sweatpants with a burgundy hoodie with NIKE written on the front. He was also carrying a black book bag with white border that also has NIKE written on it.

Officers have reviewed surveillance footage and ATF has been notified of the incident. ATF will treat the report as an advisory should there be any future incidents. Attached is a photo of the suspect taken from surveillance video.

The investigation into this incident is ongoing. Anyone with information on the whereabouts of the suspect should contact the Chatham County Police Department at (912)652-6920. Or call CrimeStoppers at (912) 234-2020. CrimeStoppers tipsters remain anonymous and may qualify for a cash reward.
