Pedestrian Struck by Vehicle on Wilmington Island

Chatham County, GA (May 23, 2018)- The Chatham County Police Department responded to the 600 block of Walthour Road at 4:30 am for a call about a pedestrian that had been struck by a vehicle. The person driving the vehicle immediately stopped and called police.

During the course of the investigation, investigators discovered that the victim had been in downtown Savannah last evening. The victim then caught a ride home with a person she meet downtown, who dropped her off in the area where she was struck by the vehicle.

The victim is listed in serious condition at this time.

Earlier rumors stated that an Uber driver was involved in the incident, however, the investigation proved this to be incorrect.
