Animal Services Investigates Alleged Animal Abuse

Chatham County, GA (July 23, 2018) – Animal Services was made aware of a video that had gone viral on Facebook today. Officers from Animal Services and the Chatham County Police Department responded to the home and removed 2 dogs from the house.

The dogs are now in the custody of Animal Services while an investigation is completed. The dogs overall condition is good.

While no further details can be release on this investigation, Animal Services Director Dr. Jake Harper would like to remind residents that suspected animal abuse should be reported to Animal Services for investigation. They can be reached at (912) 652-6575.
