CHATHAM EMERGENCY RESPONSE TRAINING

Savannah, GA – (August 21, 2017) CEMA will host another Community Emergency Response Training (CERT) during the month of September. After a large scale disaster, emergency officials may be overwhelmed. Participants of the CERT training will learn a wide variety of information that will help keep them, their family, and neighbors safe until professional assistance arrive. Individuals interested in attending the course must be available and attend each class from 8 A.M. until 4 P.M. to receive the CERT certificate. All persons interested in attending the training course should register under the Training and Events Registration tab on www.chathamemergency.org, or email Chelsea Sawyer at clsawyer@chathamcounty.org

When: September 9th, 16th and 30th
Where: Southside Fire Department Station #3
        2009 Grove Point Rd.
        Savannah, GA 31419
Time: 8 A.M – 4 P.M.
