Chatham County Police Department to Hold Pinning Ceremony for New Officers

Chatham County, GA (January 9, 2019) – The Chatham County Police Department (CCPD) will hold a pinning ceremony for officers who have graduated from police academy training on Friday, January 11 at 2 p.m. at the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum.

The ceremony will honor 14 CCPD recruits who graduated from the Georgia Public Safety Training Center in December. During the ceremony, the new officers will have their badges presented to them by CCPD Chief Jeff Hadley and pinned on their uniform by a loved one. The ceremony formally symbolizes the start of the officer's law enforcement career.
