Chatham County Police Closing Down Portions of Highway 80

Chatham County, GA (February 20, 2019) – The Chatham County Police Department is closing down Highway 80 at the Bull River Bridge due to flooding. The roadway will be closed all the way to Tybee Island.

The road will be re-opened once the water recedes and the road is safe for travel. Officers estimate it will be some time after noon today before the road is re-opened.
