Chatham County Police Department to Hold Strategic Planning Community Meetings Tomorrow

Citizen Survey Now Available Online

Chatham County, GA (May 13, 2019) –The Chatham County Police Department is inviting business and community members to brainstorm with them about its future and how it serves its citizens during two strategic planning meetings tomorrow.

The strategic planning process will design the roadmap for the future of the department, and a key part of this initiative is getting input and ideas from the people it serves.

The meetings will be held Tuesday, May 14th at the Southwest Chatham Library located at 14907 Abercorn Street next to Savannah Mall. A session focusing on the needs of the business community will be held from 10:30 a.m. until noon. A session for residents will be held there from 5:30 p.m. until 7:00 p.m.

Those who cannot attend the meetings are asked to provide their input by filling out a brief citizen survey at <https://police.chathamcountyga.gov/> .
