Chatham County Police Department's Marine Patrol to Hold Media Availability as Summer Boating Season Begins

Chatham County, GA (May 21, 2019) –The Chatham County Police Department's Marine Patrol will hold a media availability at 11:00 a.m. on Wednesday, May 22, 2019 at their office located at 3121 River Drive in Thunderbolt to discuss the start of the summer boating season.

Marine Patrol officers will be available to answer questions regarding boater safety and enforcement, and media will have the opportunity to go out on the water with officers for photos and video.

Memorial Day weekend is the traditional start of the summer boating season, and Marine Patrol wants to make sure citizens understand boating laws and safety measures prior to operating watercraft.
