Chatham County Police Working to Identify Suspect

Chatham County, GA (May 28, 2019) – Chatham County Police detectives are working to identify a man in connection with an entering auto and stolen bank card case.

Detectives are working to identify a man who was caught on surveillance footage at the LIDS in the Oglethorpe Mall on March 28th. Detectives say the man made a purchase there with a bank card that was stolen during an entering auto case earlier in the day on Prince Royal Lane.

Anyone with information about this case is asked to call Chatham County Police at 912-652-6920 or Crime Stoppers at 912-234-2020. Tipsters are anonymous and may qualify for a cash reward.
