Chatham County Police Investigating Fatal Shooting

Chatham County, GA (June 10, 2019) – Chatham County Police are investigating a fatal shooting that happened just after 10:30 p.m. tonight.

Police were called to the 2500 block of Ft. Argyle road on a report of a shooting. When they arrived, they found one man dead from an apparent gunshot wound lying behind the Country Convenience Store.

A man who was with the victim says the two were confronted by two other men, and after a brief altercation, the two suspects began firing at the victim and the witness. The witness was not injured.

Detectives are on the scene continuing to interview witnesses and gather evidence. At this time, detectives do not have a complete description of the suspects. There is no further information to release at this time. As more information becomes available, it will be released to the public and the media through press releases and the Chatham County Police Department's Facebook page.
