Man Wanted for Questioning Located

Chatham County, GA (July 18, 2019) – A man wanted for questioning in relation to a recent homicide case has been located.

Police located 39-year-old Jeffrey Moore yesterday. Moore was shot and injured during an incident that resulted in the shooting death of another man on Fort Argyle Road in June. Detectives believe he has information pertinent to the case, and that's why he was wanted for questioning.

The investigation into the June homicide is active and ongoing.
