Chatham County Police Seek the Identities of Three Women Involved in Theft

Chatham County, GA (July 25, 2019) – On July 14, 2019, Chatham County Police Officers were notified of an incident in which a woman’s wallet was stolen while shopping in the Publix located at 4717 East Hwy 80. Subsequently, the bank cards in her wallet were then used to make several purchases of electronics and gift cards from Best Buy and Target. Police are seeking information on three female suspects (pictured below) that are involved in this incident. It is believed that they are operating a white sedan possible a Chrysler 200.

Anyone who knows the suspects’ identities or whereabouts is asked to call Chatham County Police at 912-652-6920 or Crime Stoppers at 912-234-2020. CrimeStoppers tipsters are anonymous and may qualify for a cash reward.
