Chatham County Police Department's Marine Patrol Joins Search for Missing Florida Boaters

Chatham County, GA (August 22, 2019) – The Chatham County Police Department's Marine Patrol joined the search this morning for two boaters missing from Florida since Friday.

One Marine Patrol unit will be searching an area off the coast south of the May River and north of the Ogeechee River. The unit will search no further than 75-miles out to sea, and will travel as far as conditions permit.

The U.S. Coast Guard is leading the search for boaters Justin Walker and Brian McCluney. The men, who are firefighters, did not return after departing from a boat ramp in Port Canaveral, Florida on Friday.
