NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
September 28, 2018

Chatham County Law Enforcement to Provide 24/7 VIN Verification Service

Chatham County, GA (September 28, 2018) – Chatham County law enforcement agencies are about to make verifying a vehicle identification number (VIN) more convenient for its residents.

Beginning Monday, October 4th the departments will come to a resident's location to perform VIN verifications 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Residents of unincorporated Chatham County and its municipalities are eligible for this service. Residents can call 912-652-6500, ext. 5 to have an officer from their jurisdiction dispatched to their location to perform the VIN verification. The service is free of charge and will be provided 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Tybee Island residents may call the Tybee Island Police Department directly at 912-786-5600 for the service.

Previously, VIN verifications were only available during very limited hours at specific Chatham County locations.

<center>###</center>

Contact:
Betsy Nolen
Public Information Officer
Chatham County Police Department
Cell: (912) 675-2949
Email: bnolen@chathamcounty.org