Chatham County Police Department to Hold First Pinning Ceremony for New Officers

Chatham County, GA (October 2, 2018) – The Chatham County Police Department (CCPD) will hold its first pinning ceremony for officers who have graduated from police academy training on Thursday, October 4 at 2 p.m. at the Mighty Eighth Air Force Museum.

The ceremony will honor 15 CCPD recruits who graduated from the Georgia Public Safety Training Center in June and September of this year. CCPD recruits took top academic honors in the September graduating class. During the ceremony, the new officers will have their badges presented to them by CCPD Chief Jeff Hadley and pinned on their uniform by a loved one. The ceremony formally symbolizes the start of the officer's law enforcement career.

In addition to honoring CCPD's first Georgia Public Safety Training Center graduates, nine officers will also receive promotions during the ceremony.
