Chatham County Police Make Arrest in Caught-On-Camera Auto Theft Case

Chatham County, GA (November 15, 2018) – Chatham County Police Department detectives have made an arrest in the case where photos of an auto theft suspect driving a stolen car were left behind in the vehicle.

Detectives have charged 17-year-old Amonte Jeff-Wood with Theft by Receiving Motor Vehicle. Jeff-Wood was charged in connection with a vehicle that was stolen from The Links at Georgetown on September 19th. The vehicle was later recovered, but someone left behind a camera in the backseat that contained photos of a man detectives say is Jeff-Wood driving the stolen vehicle.

Jeff-Wood was booked at the Chatham County Detention Center after his arrest Tuesday.
