CNT Takes Dangerous Felon off the Streets

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA (February 11, 2019): A felon is off the streets after various drugs and a firearm were found in his possession.

Shortly after midnight on February 10, 2019, members of the Chatham-Savannah Counter Narcotics Team (CNT) and the Savannah Police Department's Violent Crime Task Force were in the Augusta Avenue corridor conducting undercover operations. Agents observed a Nissan Altima driving around suspiciously, making multiple stops along the roadway, and driving at high rates of speed. Agents made contact with the vehicle shortly after it parked. A search of the vehicle resulted in the seizure of various forms of controlled substances to include a trafficking amount of Methylenedioxymethamphetamine (MDMA), heroin, cocaine, marijuana, various prescription medications, and items consistent with the distribution of controlled substances. A fully loaded semi-automatic pistol and counterfeit U.S. currency were also seized.

CNT arrested the driver, 35-year-old Rashawn Cornell Ferebee of Savannah. Ferebee is charged with multiple felony drug charges to include Trafficking MDMA, Possession of a Controlled Substance with Intent to Distribute and Possession of a Firearm by a Convicted Felon. Ferebee is also charged with Escape after he unsuccessfully attempted to flee from officers after being placed under arrest. Ferebee has a long criminal history and recently completed a federal sentence for firearm and drug convictions.

Ferebee is being held at the Chatham County Detention Center.

Said CNT Director Everett Ragan, "Anytime law enforcement takes a dangerous armed felon off the street is a win for the community. Ferebee's arrest is the result of CNT and the Savannah Police Department working collectively and aggressively to keep our neighborhoods safe."
