CNT Seeks Public's Assistance in Locating a Group of Wanted Persons in Connection to an Ongoing Investigation

CHATHAM COUNTY, Georgia (September 23, 2019): The Chatham-Savannah Counter Narcotics Team (CNT) is seeking the public's assistance in locating various people who are wanted in connection to the same investigation.

On September 19, 2019, CNT arrested 22-year-old Andre Hunt of Savannah for Obtaining a Controlled Substance by Fraud and Possession of a Controlled Substance (Oxycodone). Hunt was released on bond.

On September 20, 2019, CNT arrested 27-year-old Tyreek Postell of Savannah for Obtaining a Controlled Substance by Fraud and Possession of a Controlled Substance (Oxycodone). Postell remains in the Chatham County Detention Center.

CNT began an investigation after determining a number of opioid-based medications were being unlawfully obtained. As CNT furthered its investigation, they identified a prescription pad was unknowingly stolen and missing from a local doctor. It was also determined other persons either unlawfully obtained or attempted to obtain an opioid-based controlled substance.

CNT is now seeking the public's assistance in locating others in connection to this investigation. All persons are wanted for Obtaining a Controlled Substance by Fraud and Possession of a Controlled Substance.
