CERTIFICATION UNDER A STANDING ORDER

Pursuant to a Standing Order of the Eastern Judicial Circuit of Georgia, I hereby certify, through counsel, that one or more children under 18 years of age are involved in the above reference domestic action. Furthermore, I hereby certify that, through counsel, the plaintiff and defendant of the above referenced domestic action have been informed that it is required by the Standing Order that they attend the Divorcing Parents Seminar within 31 days of the service of the complaint upon the defendant. Either party's failure to complete the seminar can result in that respective party being held in contempt of court. Further, both parties must complete the seminar in order for the case to proceed. Parties to the proceeding must contact Parent and Child Development Services, Inc. at 21 East Broad Street, Savannah, Georgia 31401, (912) 238-2777 to enroll in the seminar. Additionally, enrollment information is available in the Clerk of Superior Courts Office in Room 301. Each party is responsible for the payment of his or her enrollment fee. If either party is claiming indigency and return same to Parent and Children Services, Inc., who will determine if relief from the enrollment will be granted.
