SUPERIOR COURT OF CHATHAM COUNTY, GEORGIA

DISINTERMENT OF _____, DECEASED

CASE NO. _____

ORDER TO DISINTER REMAINS

An application for Order to Disinter Remains came on for hearing on the _____ day of _____.

The Court finds that all interested parties, whose names and addresses are known, have been given certified mail notice, return receipt requested, or have waived notice of hearing on the application.

The Court further finds that the statements contained in the application are true and that no testimony was adduced to establish that disinterment would be against the decedent's religious beliefs.

It is the Order of this Court that:

- (1) Applicant be and is hereby authorized to disinter the remains of the decedent; and
- (2) Applicant be and is hereby authorized to reinter the remains of the decedent at _____ Cemetery.

SUPERIOR COURT, Chief Judge
Eastern Judicial Circuit
