

Restitution is court ordered monetary compensation for crime victims. A legitimate order for restitution is applied during the sentencing of an offender and the amount and manner of payment is determined by the courts.

The Assistant District Attorney assigned to your case will need to review the restitution information you submit in order to process the case successfully. Therefore, failure to return this form in a timely manner or without the necessary documentation may result in loss of due restitution to you.

You can submit your restitution information by mail, fax, or in person to the Victim- Witness Office. You may also submit the information by email after first speaking to the Victim Advocate assigned to your case. Please see below for contact information for our office:
